NYC Yellow Taxi Operations

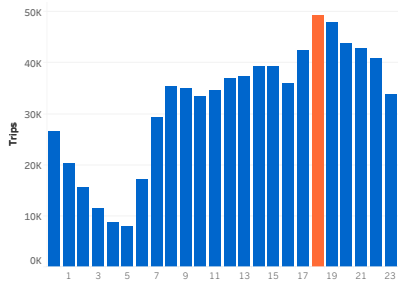

21 sample days, January to March 2016. 764,854 trips.

764,854	10.4 min	6 PM	46% / 54%
trips in the sample	median trip duration	busiest hour (49,315 trips)	Vendor 1 / Vendor 2 share

WHEN

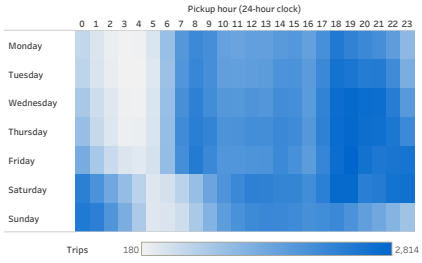

Trips build all afternoon and peak at 6 PM

Trips by pickup hour across 21 sample days (7 each in January, February, and March 2016).

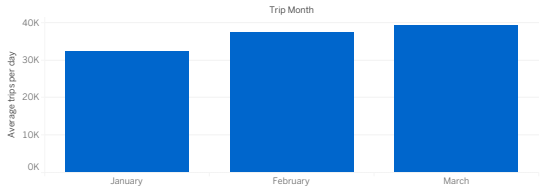

The busiest slots of the week fall between 6 and 9 PM

Trips by weekday and hour, 21 sample days (7 each in January, February, and March 2016). Each weekday appears 3 times, so read these as sample patterns

Average daily trips rose from about 32,400 in January to about 39,400 in March

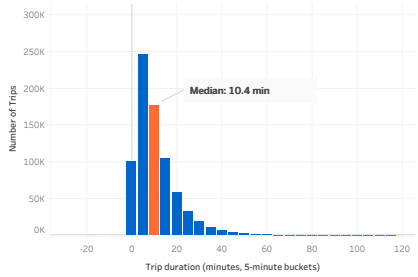

Average trips per day. 7 sample days per month

HOW LONG

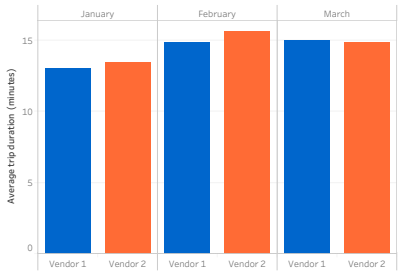

Half of all trips last about 10 minutes

Trip duration in minutes. Median 10.4, average 12.9

Both vendors take nearly the same time per trip.

Average trip duration in minutes by month. Both vendors rose from about 12.2 in January to 13.3 to 13.5 in March, using 7 sample days per month.

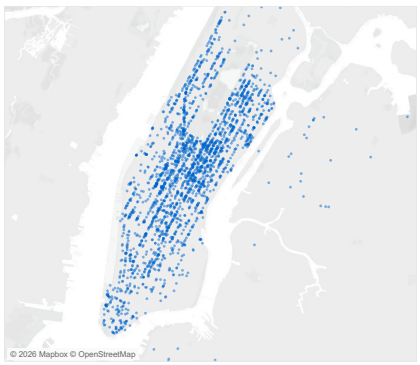

WHERE

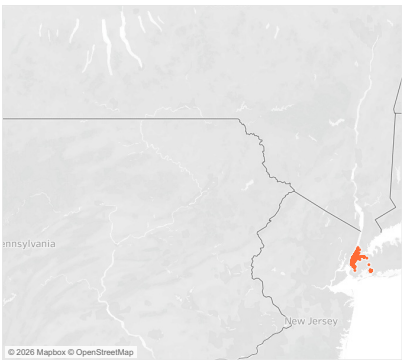

Both vendors pick up across the same NYC areas.

Pickup locations by vendor, 21 sample days. In 105 of 107 busy squares (200+ pickups), neither vendor has more than twice the other's pickups.

Vendor 1 Pickups

Vendor 2 Pickups

Source: NYC yellow taxi trip records, 21 sample days (7 each in January, February, and March 2016). Figures calculated from the sample file.